

Federal Supports for Afterschool and Summer Child Care California

There are two major sources of federal funding and supports for afterschool and summer child care: the Child Care and Development Fund (CCDF) and the 21st Century Community Learning Centers (21st CCLC) program. This data profile focuses primarily on the Child Care and Development Fund.

In California, the Department of Social Services, Child Care and Development Division serves as the CCDF Lead Agency and is responsible for monitoring providers. The Lead Agency works with local government agencies, CCR&Rs, and community-based organizations to operate quality improvement efforts. Local government agencies and community-based organizations conduct eligibility determinations and issue payments, and work with CCR&Rs to co-manage consumer education efforts.
