

State & Territory CCDF Administrators Meeting

July 30–August 1, 2019 • Hyatt Regency Crystal City • Arlington, Virginia

Successful Cross-Sector Collaborations to Inform Systems Change: The Role of Medicaid and Child Welfare

Jamie Bailey, Burrell Behavioral Health

Natalie Craver, DC Child and Family Services Agency

Mat Gass, Burrell Behavioral Health

Elizabeth Groginsky, DC Office of the State Superintendent of Education

Colleen Sonosky, JD, DC Department of Health Care Finance

Moderators and TA facilitators:

Siobhan Bredin, National Center on Afterschool and Summer Enrichment

Chad Dahm, Child Care State Capacity Building Center

Harriet Dichter, Child Care State Capacity Building Center

Welcome and Introductions

Session Objectives

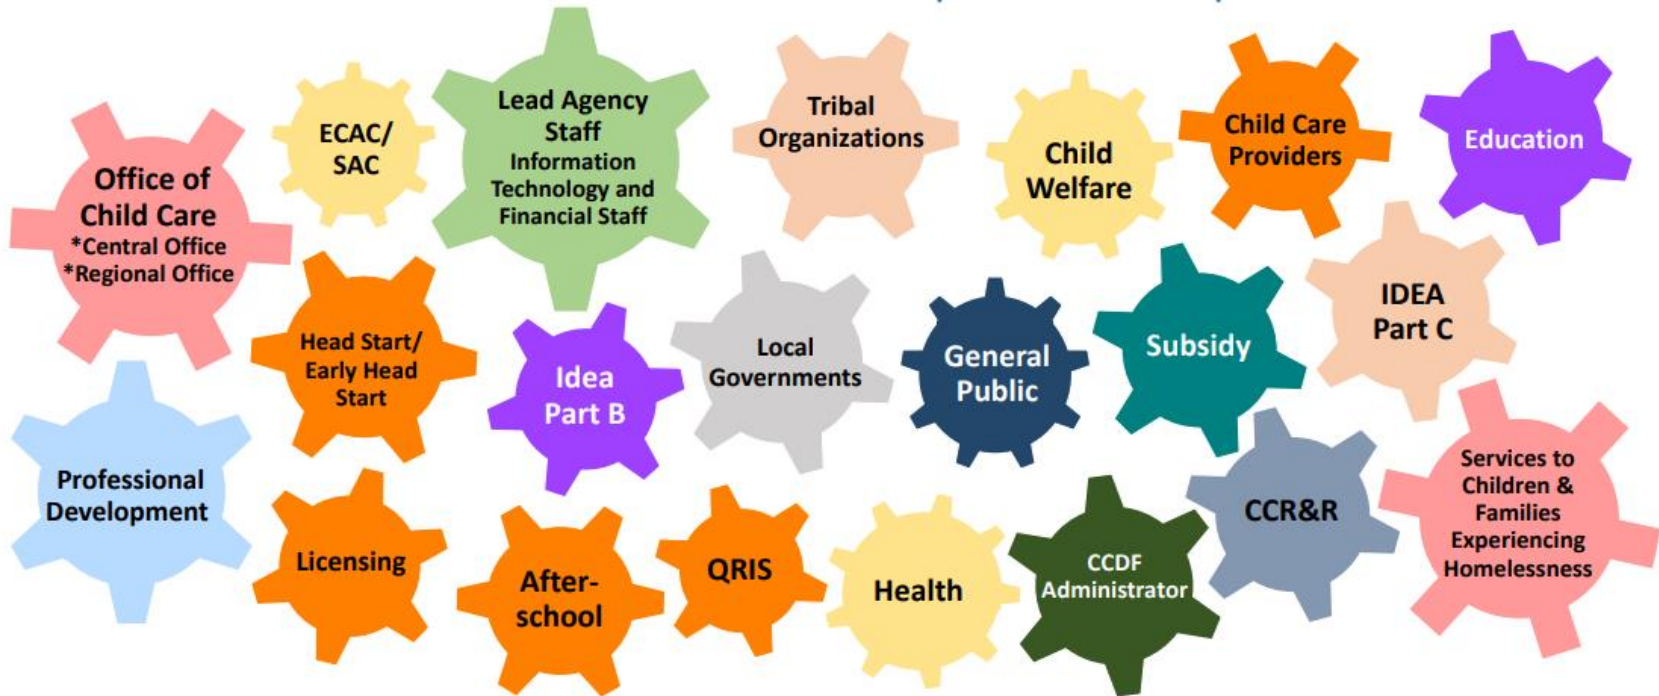

- ◆ To elevate knowledge of those whose main work is child care and early learning about important work going on in Medicaid, child welfare, and other programs and funding streams that also serve families and children who are in need
- ◆ To showcase collaborations that involve multiple programs and agencies
- ◆ To share lessons learned and insights about the role of various state-led programs in collaborating with other state-led systems to bring about systems change

Agenda

- ◆ Cross-sector collaboration examples
- ◆ Panel discussion with audience input
- ◆ Wrap up and thank you

CCDF Administrator Relationships and Responsibilities

Administration for Children and Families, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. (2017). Fundamentals of CCDF administration [Web page]. Retrieved from <https://www.acf.hhs.gov/archive/occ/resource/fundamentals-of-ccdf-administration>

Who Else Touches the Lives of Low-Income Children and Families in Your Community?

- ◆ Head Start
- ◆ Child Welfare
- ◆ Temporary Assistance for Needy Families
- ◆ Child and Adult Care Food Program
- ◆ McKinney-Vento state coordinators and local liaisons
- ◆ Medicaid

Panel Discussion

- ◆ Missouri
 - Jamie Bailey, Burrell Behavioral Health
 - Mat Gass, Burrell Behavioral Health

- ◆ District of Columbia
 - Natalie Craver, DC Child and Family Services Agency
 - Elizabeth Groginsky, Office of the State Superintendent of Education
 - Colleen Sonosky, JD, Department of Health Care Finance

State & Territory CCDF Administrators Meeting

July 30–August 1, 2019 • Hyatt Regency Crystal City • Arlington, Virginia

Thank You

Early Childhood
National Centers