CHILDREN & FAMILIES

Session Objectives

- Introduce participants to the Tribal Child Care Management Systems Framework and understand how it can help with CCDF program alignment and coordination.
- Examine how intentional and strategic planning efforts strengthen outcomes for children, families, and communities.
- Interact with colleagues and TA resource staff to share strategies, approaches and tools and resources.

Check-In

What questions do you have about CCDF program planning and service design?

Exploring Management Systems: Circle Conversations

- Look for the two topics assigned to your team's table
- For the next 15 minutes, discuss these topics using the guiding questions under each system's description in your overview booklet
- Choose someone to record your team's responses
- Choose a reporter to share the team's major takeaways with the larger group

Planning Café Discussions

What are the major milestones in developing and implementing your three-year tribal CCDF Plan?

- Allow each person at your table to share their initial thoughts on this question
- Choose a recorder to take notes on the flip chart
- Be prepared to share your team's discussion highlights with the whole group after 10 minutes

Planning Timeline

What are the major milestones in developing and implementing your three-year tribal CCDF Plan?

- After each table has shared, the large group will create a timeline of the tribal CCDF Plan cycle from development through each year of implementation.
