

State and Territory CCDF Administrators Meeting

August 7–9, 2018 • Crystal Gateway Marriott • Arlington, Virginia

Building Capacity to Support State System Change: Examples of How States Have Used the Capacity Building Self-Assessment Tool

Desiree' Reddick-Head, State Capacity Building Center
Stephanie Gehres, Florida Office of Early Learning

Agenda

- Introductions
- Overview of the self-assessment tool
- Examples of uses of the tool in Impact states
- Florida experience
- Small-group discussion on use of the tool
- Reporting out and commitment to action

Capacity Building Self-Assessment

- Capacity building: a means to an end
- Readiness to change
- Self-assessment purpose

Self-Assessment Dimensions

- Culture and climate
- Engagement and partnership
- Financial resources
- Infrastructure
- Knowledge and skills

Indiana Impact Project

- Infrastructure building
- 4.b. Establishing high-functioning interagency planning and implementation

South Carolina Impact Project

- Engagement and partnerships
- 2.a. Establishing and maintaining relationships with stakeholders (e.g., state agency partners, advocates, providers, parents, and oversight groups)

Florida Impact Project

- Culture and climate
- 1.b. Embedding equity

Small-Group Discussion

- Choose a dimension and subdimension.
- Discuss capacity level.
- Explore ways to build capacity.

Reflections

- Share thoughts on the possible uses of the tool.
- What dimensions in the tool resonated with you?
- Describe your commitment to action.

Thank You!

- Desiree' Reddick-Head, State Capacity Building Center, desiree.reddick-head@icf.com
- Stephanie Gehres, Florida Office of Early Learning, Stephanie.gehres@oel.myflorida.com

State Capacity Building Center,
A Service of the Office of Child Care

9300 Lee Highway

Fairfax, VA 22031

Phone: 877-296-2401

Email: CapacityBuildingCenter@ecetta.info

Subscribe to Updates

http://www.occ-cmc.org/occannouncements_sign-up/

ADMINISTRATION FOR CHILDREN & FAMILIES

