

Federal Supports for Afterschool and Summer Child Care Puerto Rico

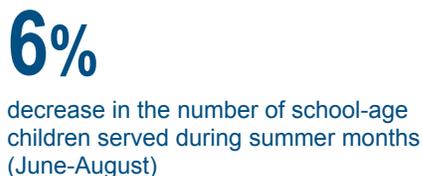

There are two major sources of federal funding and supports for afterschool and summer child care: the Child Care and Development Fund (CCDF) and the 21st Century Community Learning Centers (21st CCLC) program. This data profile focuses primarily on the Child Care and Development Fund.

In Puerto Rico, the Administration for Integral Child Care and Development serves as the CCDF Lead Agency and oversees all aspects of CCDF administration, including subsidy and financial assistance, outreach and consumer education, licensing and monitoring, child care workforce, and quality improvement.

School-Age Children (5 through 12 years old) Served Through Subsidies in Puerto Rico:

Percentages do not add up to 100 due to rounding

PR 21st Century
Community Learning
Centers Program
2014–2015

Data not available

State Policies that Support School-Age Child Care Access and Quality in Puerto Rico

Please see the National Data Profile for information on policies and practices across all states and territories.

- State-funded network of Child Care Resource and Referral (CCR&R) agencies providing consumer education

Unknown

- CCDF training and professional development requirements include supporting the positive development of school-age children

- CCDF Lead Agency offers grants/contracts for child care slots
- Grants/contracts can be used to increase the supply and/or quality of school-age child care

- Quality Rating Improvement System (QRIS)
- School-age child care programs eligible to participate in QRIS
- Participation is mandatory for providers serving children whose families receive subsidies

QRIS in pilot phase

- Statewide afterschool network
- National AfterSchool Association state affiliate

- CCDF figures based on ACF 801 preliminary data FY 2015.
- 21st CCLC figures provided by Afterschool Alliance, based on 2014-2015 program year.
- Information about state and territory policies taken from Child Care and Development Fund Plans FY 2016-2018, Child Care Aware of America, www.qriscompendium.org, www.statewideafterschoolnetworks.net and www.naaweb.org.