When a TEA case closes due to employment, services can be extended through Extended Support Services (ESS). The first twelve (12) months is provided at no cost to the client. There is a minimal twenty (20) hour work requirement. After their twelve (12) months of childcare has been exhausted, the ESS recipients' case will be re-evaluated by the caseworker and eligibility will be established using the low-income eligibility standards. TEA and ESS each have a twenty-four (24) month lifetime limit.

* Includes families receiving TANF program funds, those transitioning off TANF through work activities, or those at risk of becoming dependent on TANF.

Consumer Education Website

How the Lead Agency ensures that its website is consumer-friendly and easily accessible	DCCECE created a consumer website that is clear and comprehensive including linkages to the required information, ensuring the information posted is accurate and updated. The division works with the agency’s communications division as well as a communications contractor to ensure that language is at the appropriate grade level. The Child Care Facility Search Site provides information about specific child care programs to assist families in making decisions about child care, including information on the programs quality rating level and regulatory visit information. The website is at: http://humanservices.arkansas.gov/about-dhs/dccece/programs-services/consumer-education. DCCECE has two staff who provide outreach to non-English speakers in the Pulaski County and Northwest Arkansas areas of the state. They have developed liaisons with community organizations that serve Hispanics to educate members on child care assistance that might be available as funding permits and to ensure that those currently served are communicated in a culturally-competent manner. DCCECE plans to work with our contractors, resource and referral agencies and community leaders to provide more resources to the website including more links for parents, providers and the general public.
How the website ensures the widest possible access to services for families that speak languages other than English	All services provided on the consumer website are available to anyone seeking child care assistance.
